

Field laboratory

MRM Konsult AB offers the services of qualified field technicians and field laboratory facilities for geotechnical projects of both larger and smaller scale. The facilities are primarily equipped for quality control of loose material, but can be equipped according to requirements. Please contact us for a quote. The field laboratory is used in bigger infrastructure projects such as dams for the mining industry, railroads, etc. Our services can also be combined with quality control of the relevant construction.